Stables at Tamaya: Trail Rides offer a unique and fun way to experience the Pueblo backcountry. Along your journey you will enjoy spectacular views of the Sandia Mountains silhouetted against the New Mexican sky. Your peaceful ride will take you through the cottonwood trees that line the Rio Grande and Jemez Rivers, as well as meander along trails where the Tamayame have traveled for centuries. For additional information and reservations, please call 505-771-6037.

Tamaya Cultural Activities: Observe traditional Pueblo bread baking made fresh in the grand courtyard with our authentic Huruna. Sample the fresh loaves as they come out of the oven with your choice of butter, jam, or honey. Different tribal members from the local pueblos host each baking. Discover their personal stories and family traditions. Flute Playing and Tribal Dances are also featured weekly.

Tamaya Mist Spa and Salon: Tamaya Mist offers a well-equipped fitness center and a beautiful yoga-aerobic wellness theater. Separate men's and women's meditation, sauna/steam and changing areas add to the relaxed enjoyment of this world-class spa. Enjoy a local treatment such as the "Spirit Path", or a specialized massage with your choice of scented oils from the Aromatherapy Bar. For more information, please call 505-771-6134.

Twin Warriors Golf Club: Twin Warriors Golf Club is eighteen holes of high desert, championship golf routed in and around 20 ancient cultural sites of previous habitation and activity. The site of the 2009 PGA Professional National Championship, the course has beautiful grassy knolls and ridges dotted with Juniper and Pinon Pine. Wonderful dry washes known as arroyo's and eroded land features, along with the sacred butte known as Tuyuna or "Snakehead" complete a picture frames by spectacular views of the Sandia Mountains.
